NOVA SCOTIA REGULATOR OF PARAMEDICINE

LICENSED PARAMEDICS FROM AUS/NZ CHECKLIST

Proof of legal name. For international applicants this must be a notarized document. Acceptable documentation includes a government issued birth certificate or marriage license. It may also be in the form of a legal affidavit. Proof of identity. For international applicants this must be a notarized document. Acceptable documentation includes a government issued passport, or driver's license. An international criminal record check, with vulnerable sector screening, (e.g. Australian Federal Police - Overseas Employment - Nursing, Hospital Employment) Proof of having the current capacity, competence and character to safely and ethically practice paramedicine. Each of these criteria are evaluated based upon the completed application form and the information the applicant submits in support of the application form. Examples include criminal record check, verification of registration, or any other documents requested by the Regulator. A verification of registration, if the applicant was part of another regulated profession (other than paramedicine), from each jurisdiction where the applicant was registered to prove that there are no outstanding complaints, prohibitions, conditions, or restrictions against the applicant practising within that other regulated profession in those jurisdictions. A verification of registration for each jurisdiction where the applicant is/was registered as a paramedic to prove there are no outstanding complaints, prohibitions, conditions, or restrictions against the registrant practicing paramedicine in that jurisdiction. (Please request a Certificate of Registration Status directly from AHPRA they send it to NSRoP) Proof that the applicant is authorized to practise as a paramedic in an international jurisdiction that the Board recognizes for an Expedited Pathway. This may be satisfied by submitting the verification of registration for the jurisdiction where the applicant is currently licensed. CoRS from AHPRA is sufficient for Australia only.	ITEM	CRITERIA	OBTAINED notarized document. Acceptable documentation includes a government issued passport, or driver's license. An international criminal record check, with vulnerable sector screening. (e.g. Australian Federal Police - Overseas Employment - Nursing, Hospital Employment) Proof of having the current capacity, competence and character to safely and ethically practice paramedicine. Each of these criteria are evaluated based upon the completed application form and the information the applicant submits in support of the application form. Examples include criminal record check, verification of registration, or any other documents requested by the Regulator. O5 A verification of registration, if the applicant was part of another regulated profession (other than paramedicine), from each jurisdiction where the applicant was registered to prove that there are no outstanding complaints, prohibitions, conditions, or restrictions against the applicant practising within that other regulated profession in those jurisdictions. O6 A verification of registration for each jurisdiction where the applicant is/was registered as a paramedic to prove there are no outstanding complaints, prohibitions, conditions, or restrictions against the registrant practicing paramedicine in that jurisdiction. (Please request a Certificate of Registration Status directly from AHPRA they send it to NSRoP) Proof that the applicant is authorized to practise as a paramedic in an international jurisdiction that the Board recognizes for an Expedited Pathway. This may be satisfied by submitting the verification of registration for the jurisdiction where the applicant is	01	notarized document. Acceptable documentation includes a government issued birth certificate or marriage license. It may also screening. (e.g. Australian Federal Police - Overseas Employment - Nursing, Hospital Employment) O4 Proof of having the current capacity, competence and character to safely and ethically practice paramedicine. Each of these criteria are evaluated based upon the completed application form and the information the applicant submits in support of the application form. Examples include criminal record check, verification of registration, or any other documents requested by the Regulator. O5 A verification of registration, if the applicant was part of another regulated profession (other than paramedicine), from each jurisdiction where the applicant was registered to prove that there are no outstanding complaints, prohibitions, conditions, or restrictions against the applicant practising within that other regulated profession in those jurisdictions. O6 A verification of registration for each jurisdiction where the applicant is/was registered as a paramedic to prove there are no outstanding complaints, prohibitions, conditions, or restrictions against the registrant practicing paramedicine in that jurisdiction. (Please request a Certificate of Registration Status directly from AHPRA they send it to NSRoP) Proof that the applicant is authorized to practise as a paramedic in an international jurisdiction that the Board recognizes for an Expedited Pathway. This may be satisfied by submitting the verification of registration for the jurisdiction where the applicant is	02	notarized document. Acceptable documentation includes a safely and ethically practice paramedicine. Each of these criteria are evaluated based upon the completed application form and the information the applicant submits in support of the application form. Examples include criminal record check, verification of registration, or any other documents requested by the Regulator. O5 A verification of registration, if the applicant was part of another regulated profession (other than paramedicine), from each jurisdiction where the applicant was registered to prove that there are no outstanding complaints, prohibitions, conditions, or restrictions against the applicant practising within that other regulated profession in those jurisdictions. O6 A verification of registration for each jurisdiction where the applicant is/was registered as a paramedic to prove there are no outstanding complaints, prohibitions, conditions, or restrictions against the registrant practicing paramedicine in that jurisdiction. (Please request a Certificate of Registration Status directly from AHPRA they send it to NSRoP) Proof that the applicant is authorized to practise as a paramedic in an international jurisdiction that the Board recognizes for an Expedited Pathway. This may be satisfied by submitting the verification of registration for the jurisdiction where the applicant is	03	screening. (e.g. Australian Federal Police - Overseas Employment regulated profession (other than paramedicine), from each jurisdiction where the applicant was registered to prove that there are no outstanding complaints, prohibitions, conditions, or restrictions against the applicant practising within that other regulated profession in those jurisdictions. A verification of registration for each jurisdiction where the applicant is/was registered as a paramedic to prove there are no outstanding complaints, prohibitions, conditions, or restrictions against the registrant practicing paramedicine in that jurisdiction. (Please request a Certificate of Registration Status directly from AHPRA they send it to NSROP) Proof that the applicant is authorized to practise as a paramedic in an international jurisdiction that the Board recognizes for an Expedited Pathway. This may be satisfied by submitting the verification of registration for the jurisdiction where the applicant is	04	safely and ethically practice paramedicine. Each of these criteria are evaluated based upon the completed application form and the information the applicant submits in support of the application form. Examples include criminal record check, verification of registration, applicant is/was registered as a paramedic to prove there are no outstanding complaints, prohibitions, conditions, or restrictions against the registrant practicing paramedicine in that jurisdiction. (Please request a Certificate of Registration Status directly from AHPRA they send it to NSRoP) Proof that the applicant is authorized to practise as a paramedic in an international jurisdiction that the Board recognizes for an Expedited Pathway. This may be satisfied by submitting the verification of registration for the jurisdiction where the applicant is	05	regulated profession (other than paramedicine), from each jurisdiction where the applicant was registered to prove that there are no outstanding complaints, prohibitions, conditions, or restrictions against the applicant practising within that other
an international jurisdiction that the Board recognizes for an Expedited Pathway. This may be satisfied by submitting the verification of registration for the jurisdiction where the applicant is	06	applicant is/was registered as a paramedic to prove there are no outstanding complaints, prohibitions, conditions, or restrictions against the registrant practicing paramedicine in that jurisdiction. (Please request a Certificate of Registration Status directly from
	07	an international jurisdiction that the Board recognizes for an Expedited Pathway. This may be satisfied by submitting the verification of registration for the jurisdiction where the applicant is

2507_V4 PAGE 1

NOVA SCOTIA REGULATOR OF PARAMEDICINE

LICENSED PARAMEDICS FROM AUSTRALIA CHECKLIST

ITEM	CRITERIA	OBTAINED
08	A self-assessment against the Regulators's Essential Competencies Profile for ACPs for the purpose of determining the applicants' competencies.
09	A letter of intent to: O Apply for the ACP Bridging Education within six (6) months of licensing with the Regulator. O Complete the necessary ACP Bridging Education within eighteen (18) months of licensing with the Regulator O Write the first available ACP Provincial Entry to Practice Exam upon completing the ACP Bridging Education. Information about the entry to practice exam may be obtained from the Canadian Organization of Paramedic Regulators website. Information and Application Process — Canadian Organization of Paramedic Regulators (copr.ca)
10	If applicable, providing proof of English language proficiency. This will be required from any applicant whose first language is not English and no equivalent language proficiency requirement was imposed on, and satisfied by, the applicant in their current licensing jurisdiction. Contact Regulator Staff for specifics about documentation should this apply to your application.
11	 Providing any information that the Registrar requires to establish that an applicant has not: O Been charged with, has pleaded guilty to or has been found to be guilty of an offence inside or outside of Canada that is inconsistent with the proper professional behaviour of a registrant, including any criminal convictions. O Been found guilty of a disciplinary finding in another jurisdiction.

2507_V4 PAGE 2

NOVA SCOTIA REGULATOR OF PARAMEDICINE

LICENSED PARAMEDICS FROM AUSTRALIA CHECKLIST

ITEM	CRITERIA	OBTAINED
12	A complete Initial Registration and Licensure Application, which includes all requisite documentation, and the application fee . Once the application is approved there is a Registration and Licensure fee .
	There are several documents, described below, an applicant may not have access to until they arrive in Canada but must be submitted to the Regulator within 5 days of arrival and before the applicant may practice in Canada.
13	Proof of being legally entitled to live and work in Canada (permit).
14	Proof of professional liability insurance.

The Regulator will conduct a full review of submitted applications.

All applications are initially reviewed by the Registrar, or their designate, within (5) days of receiving a completed application to determine whether the applicant meets the criteria for registration, licensing, or renewal of their license.

A completed application includes the electronic application form, its associated fee, and all the necessary documentation as determined by the Registration and Licensing Decision Maker.

2507_V4 PAGE 3